

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 16, 2020

Media Contact:

Melissa Laine Dunn
Vice Chair
AFP SC Central Carolina Chapter
803.758.6982
mdunn@uway.org

Association of Fundraising Professionals Announces 2020 National Philanthropy Day Award Winners

Columbia, S.C. (November 10, 2020) – The SC Central Carolina Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) is honoring the finest achievements of the philanthropic community in the Midlands at the 30th Annual National Philanthropy Day during the week of November 15, 2020.

The 2020 National Philanthropy Day Award recipients are:

Outstanding Small Business or Entrepreneur – Jess MacCallum, President, Professional Printers

Outstanding Corporation – BlueCross BlueShield of South Carolina and the BlueCross BlueShield of South Carolina Foundation

Outstanding Fundraising Executive (Small Nonprofit) -- Tanika Epps, Communities In Schools of the Midlands

Outstanding Fundraising Executive (Large Nonprofit) – Andrew Boozer, Senior Resources

Outstanding Rising Star -- Elizabeth Blake Dudek

Outstanding Philanthropic Large Nonprofit – Senior Resources

Outstanding Philanthropic Small Nonprofit – Lighthouse for Life

"The Central SC Chapter of AFP is proud to honor philanthropists, volunteers and professionals who are on the front lines of changing and saving lives every day," said Becky Morrison, AFP Chair. "This is our 30th year hosting National Philanthropy Day and while we aren't able to celebrate philanthropy all together, it is still a joy to honor all of those who have gone above and beyond in our community."

###

About AFP, Central Carolina Chapter

The South Carolina Central Chapter represents a diverse membership of fundraising professionals who serve constituencies ranging from small to large non-profits, colleges, universities, government entities, and international organizations. We meet regularly for educational luncheon programs that satisfy continuing education requirements for fundraising professionals.